

Department of Human Development

Admissions Open for MSc (Human Development) 2017-18

Vision of the Department

Imparting scientific education that can bring positive change in human minds

Mission

- To grow intra and interpersonally and develop holistically
- To adjust to the changing roles and responsibilities in the society.
- To understand human needs, rights and privileges and to promote tolerant, integrated happy and healthy families, societies and nations.
- To contribute and promote a good human development index for our country.
- To provide students with an excellent program where they can observe, learn and practice Human Development.

Eligibility Criteria for students

- Bachelors Degree from any stream from a recognized university and who have secured not less than 50%

Courses offered

Course Code	Name of Course
1st Semester
CC-01	Human Growth and Development
CC-02	Theoretical perspectives in HD
CC-03	Infant Development and Stimulation
CC-04	Curriculum Planning for Early Childhood Education
AC-01	Statistics
AC-04	Culture and psychology
SC-01	Personal effectiveness and business communication
	Community Development Programme
2nd Semester
CC-05	Parenting

CC-06	Children with Special Needs and Inclusive Education
CC-07	Adolescence
CC-08	Gerontology
AC-0 3	Psychometrics-1
AC-02	Psychometrics-2
SC- 02	Research Methodology
	Internship
3rd Semester
EC-01	Mental health
EC-02	Women studies
EC-03	Crime and Violence / Family and community dynamics
EC-04	Guidance for children / Legislation and the policy issues in family and child welfare
AC-05	Human Resource Management
SC-03	Entrepreneurship
IMC- 01	Multi Disciplinary Course
4th Semester
EC-05	Guidance and Counselling
EC-06	Media in Human Development
EC-07	Human rights / Management Of Programs For Children And Families
PR-01	Dissertation

For further information contact Dept. of Human Development,
Mount Carmel College

Dr. Sujata Gupta Kedar (Head of Department)

Email – sujataguptakedar@hotmail.com, hdp@mcblr.co.in

Mob no- 9986103406